when your talent thrives, your company thrives.

Coaching and development programs have now become an expected practice at high performing companies. They are a critical part of talent strategy and one of the most powerful tools for an organization's performance.

The forward thinking, leading brands of today understand that their most valuable asset is their people and they strive to create cultures of action and accountability that ultimately will drive success. ThriveX offers these organizations one-on-one, personalized professional growth and development initiatives to help them meet their goals and to ensure their people thrive.

Through our Office Hours and Growth Index Coaching Programs, we provide the resources and tools you need to create solid teams with winning cultures.

DRIVE THE HEALTH AND SUCCESS OF YOUR COMPANY

Our programs are more than what you may be thinking. We go far beyond the traditional coach walking employees through their struggles. We partner with each employee on an individual basis, helping them not only identify areas they may need to improve or adjust, but also working with them with an action plan to achieve their goals.

Individualized Experience

Each experience is crafted based on the individuals strengths, goals and challenges.

Tailored Programs

Every individual is different, each company's culture - unique. Because of that, a one-size-fits all solution was never in the realm of possibilities for us.

Top of the Line Service

Each individual that engages with ThriveX receives unparalleled service from our team. We invest in each individual to the fullest, ensuring their experience is a quality one. As we often say: We're "in it with" you.

Low Touch

We guarantee an experience that is low touch for the company and high touch for the participant.

Cost Effective Solution

We provide a turn-key, seamless way to offer resources and development to employees that will create long-term impact without dedicating long-term resources.

"WHEN YOUR COMPANY IS COMMITTED TO PUTTING PEOPLE FIRST, TO BEING A PARTNER IN THEIR GROWTH AND SUCCESS, IT CREATES AN ENVIRONMENT WHERE BOTH PEOPLE AND COMPANY GROW AND THRIVE."

CULTURE AND EMPLOYEE DEVELOPMENT

Evidence shows that one of the top three reasons that talent chooses companies is based on the company's commitment to professional development.

Companies that invest in their employees and provide opportunities for professional development increase their companies health and longevity.

OFFICE HOURS is our one-on-one personalized coaching program developed for those forward-thinking companies that recognize that their people are their most valuable asset. These companies are committed to attracting and retaining top talent in providing the best tools, resources and coaching available to help their talent thrive.

“Coaching has been a tremendous help to our employees. We have been named one of the TOP 100 BEST PLACES TO WORK IN NYC BY CRAIN’S four years in a row and have had 2% turnover, no doubt in great part to Robin and the ThriveX coaching program.”

- Jeremy Miller, CEO and Founder
